

Evaluating Video Conferencing: What Really Matters

HD video conferencing is growing rapidly as companies around the world rapidly adopt video solutions to accelerate business collaboration, increase productivity, and lower travel costs. All vitally important in this difficult economy, when doing more with your existing resources is paramount.

But how do you decide what solution is best for you? Do you understand what features are the most important for your needs? Are you afraid of making a mistake?

If you are thinking about purchasing HD Video conferencing solutions now or in the future, watch our recorded webinar for this informative 15 minute session as LifeSize takes the mystery out of video conferencing systems and explain how to evaluate and find the right video conferencing solution to fit your specific needs.

For more information please call EASY Group 0800 13 13 100 www.easy.co.uk